

DRAMATIC AND SENSATIONAL

Convicted Man Declares His Superiors Adopted Crooked Ways.

A VEMIRE FOR BYNUM TRIAL

The Tabernacle Baptist Church to Be Made Nearly Twice As Large.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., July 13.—Something of a dramatic and sensational incident took place in the court-house here, when Judge Allen sentenced Alpheus Vaughan, former agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., in charge of the Raleigh office, to three years on the county roads for embezzlement. Vaughan was allowed to go on the stand and make a statement in his own behalf, and vowed that he had stolen nothing from the company, and that in making false entries and returns he was obeying instructions from the district supervisors, following a common practice they have agents to use in order to show big business.

Vaughan was corroborated in this by R. L. Green, former manager of the Raleigh office, who stated to the court that he retired from the company's service rather than be guilty of such practices as the district supervisors exacted of the local managers. He declared that Supervisor-Manager Fincher, of Baltimore, told him that it was necessary for the agents in North Carolina to make a better showing, and instructed him to sell the regular $20 machine for $20 cash, in order to meet competition, and report the sale to the office as time sales. He left the service of the company rather than be guilty of this practice.

In the midst of these statements, Supervisor-Manager C. A. Brown and him in prosecuting the case, sprang to his feet, held with rage, and cried out that the statements of Vaughan and Green were false. The judge ordered him to take his seat and be silent. It was after hearing these statements that the judge gave Vaughan three years on the county roads.

A venire of 250 men has been drawn in court for the trial of Raymond Bynum, for the killing of his business partner, Jas. H. Alford, the venerable senior deacon of the First Baptist church. The day for the trial to begin has been changed to Monday of next week, and the defense is to be in court. The grand jury has returned true bills against J. Rowan Rogers and J. P. Sorrell for embezzlement. They are now serving the thirty days' sentence each in the jail for contempt of court, in that they approached men drawn as jurors in the noted Gattis vs. Kille case, in the interest of the defendants. Rogers, it will be remembered, is an ex-sheriff of Wake county.

Members of Tabernacle Baptist Church at a business meeting, held last night, determined to enlarge the church to a seating capacity of 1,200, it being now 700. A committee was appointed to procure plans, the work to be done with the least possible delay. About $5,000 will be expended. The auditorium has become entirely inadequate for the crowds that assemble every Sunday night.

The directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad have declared a semi-annual dividend of 1-1/2 per cent., payable August 1st. The State owns the majority of the stock.

There are 70 corporations in the State which have not made their annual reports required by law, to the State Auditor, and that official is sending out urgent notices warning them that a fine of $50 each will be enforced against all who do not have their reports in by August 1st. There are 2,300 corporations in the State that have to make these reports.

RUSSELL SAGE OUT AGAIN; SPY AT AGE OF EIGHTY-NINE

RUSSELL SAGE.

Financier Appears at Office for First Time in Six Months. Likes to Read Papers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, July 13.—Russell Sage yesterday emerged from his retirement and appeared again among the busiest haunts of men. Although he will be eighty-nine years old on the fourth of next month, he walked as though he were fifty years younger than that, and appeared to be oblivious of the intense heat.

He went to the meeting of the directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, where many of his former associates congratulated him on how well he was looking. He was attired in a light, summery suit. Several years ago he gave up riding in the elevated railroads and yesterday went down town in his carriage.

Mr. Sage spent an hour or so at his office, in No. 21 Nassau Street, where he had not been for any length of time since last February, and looked over the old ticker which stands on its shaky wooden pedestal as though he were some young business man just beginning his career. His health has improved very much since his serious illness last winter.

Mr. Sage, who does not believe in vacations, has no immediate plans to go to the country. He goes out driving every pleasant day with Mrs. Sage. One of his amusements is reading afternoon newspapers, several of which he has sent to him daily, about 5 o'clock.

He told the policemen who found him that he had been held up and robbed by several men, who afterwards poured kerosene over him and applied a match to his clothing. His home, he said, was in Chester, Pa., and he stated that he had relatives named Katz in New York.

Says Story is a "Lie."
CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 13.—Frank Rockefeller, brother of John D. and William Rockefeller, brands Ida M. Farwell's story of his father's life, printed in a current magazine, as a lie. He says that the truth will be known, and suggests that the family may take action to protect the name and honor of his father.

Frog Skin on Women.
SHELBYVILLE, IND., July 13.—A most remarkable operation was performed in this city yesterday by Dr. Will H. Kennedy, assisted by Dr. Frank Campbell. The skins taken from the lower part of forty-one frogs were grafted upon the arms and shoulders of Mrs. William Hardy, aged thirty-seven, the wife of a farmer, who was recently frightfully scalded.

Engagement Confirmed.
LONDON, July 13.—Miss Ethel Barrymore yesterday confirmed the report of her engagement to Captain Harry Graham.

Maid Bride for Bottle of Beer.
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., July 13.—Mrs. Martha Bradford, of Fountain, in her application for a divorce from L. W. Bradford, complains that he sold her for a bottle of beer at public auction.

Girl Barks Like Dog.
WILMINGTON, DEL., July 13.—The case of Alice Pierce, who barks like a dog, and several times tried to bite her mother, is puzzling physicians of this city. The girl is 13 years old, and is the daughter of J. Bayard Pierce, of 109 West Eighth Street. Last Wednesday she was overcome by the heat and was sent to a hospital, where she apparently recovered. On being returned to her home, she suddenly began to bark.

Negress Employed; Girls Strike.
PITTSBURGH, July 13.—Fifteen girls employed in the mattress factory of A. J. Logan & Co., at Twenty-Ninth Street and Liberty Avenue, went on strike Tuesday afternoon, because the firm had employed Estella Wells, a young negress, in the office of the company as a stenographer and typewriter. The strikers were employed at sewing mattresses and they demanded the dismissal of the colored girl because they claimed that a negress had no right to be employed at such pleasant work in the office, while they were compelled to work in the factory.

Rare Shakespeare Relic.
LONDON, July 13.—One of the only three known existing copies of the fourth quarto of Shakespeare's Richard III was sold at auction at Sotheby's yesterday for $750. It contains in five places the autograph of William Penn, father of the founder of Pennsylvania.

Phipps' Sons Held.
LONDON, July 13.—J. B. and H. G. Phipps, sons of Henry Phipps, of Pittsburgh, who were recently charged before a sheriff with the reckless discharge of firearms on the Beaufort estate, in the Highlands of Scotland, leased by Mr. Phipps from Lord Lovat, by which they wounded three persons, were committed to prison yesterday. The defendants were liberated in $2,500 bail each.

The young men discharged shotguns at three persons whom they believed to be poachers. One of the men was struck in the face and lost the sight of an eye.

Bailey-Gill.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEACH, VA., July 13.—Mr. Thomas Bailey and Miss Carroll Ethlyn Gill were married at Mr. O'Leary's, near here, last night at 8 o'clock. Rev. T. J. Nettles, of the Baptist Church, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucy Ellen (Nelle) Gill, of Manchester, Va., and the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Carter L. Bailey, of this place.

The following acted as ushers: Mr. N. Grover Perdue, with Miss Mary Coghill, of Chesterfield, C. H.; Mr. S. Henri Perdue, with Miss Nora Gill, sister of the bride; Mr. Fabian L. Jackson, with Miss Mabelle

Gill, sister of the bride; Mr. Walter S. Howlette, with Miss Ella Gill; Mr. Thomas H. Gill, brother of the bride, with Miss Flossie Dancy; Mr. William E. (Hille) Gill, with Miss Sallie M. Graves; Mr. Robble Williams, with Miss Annie M. Talbot.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride to a few relatives and the ushers.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Gill (sheriff of this county). The groom is the son of the late Rev. James Bailey. They will make their home in this county.

Owing to the inclement weather, the crowd at the church was not as large as usual on such occasions.
